

Reviving the Construction Industry

Project Proposal No. (9)
Singapore

Part (A)

1. To collect data/statistical figure of progress of the construction industry for the past 5 years and analysis
2. Collect from all the AF members the points / factors that will help to Revive the Construction Industry
3. Collect from all the AF Members the “Stumbling Block” factors to the Construction Industry
4. Sieve through all the various factors provided
5. Highlight the potential Critical Success Factor (CFS) in descending order based on survey
6. To be reviewed by all the Asian Forum Members

Part (B)

1. Collect from all the AF Members the points / Factors that the government will be / is going to implement to help the Industry
2. Sieve through all the various factors provided
3. Highlight the potential Critical Success Factor (CFS) in descending order based on given information
4. To be reviewed by all the Asian Forum Members

Part (C)

1. To reconcile both the Part (A) and Part (B) and publish the result to all the AF Members

(Optional)

2. To evaluate the results in regular interval as stipulated (e.g. yearly based on the government economic report), and post in on the AF website